A WORD FROM SHANNON

Fifteen years have come and gone since I laid my reins over the horses neck and picked up my paint brushes full time. During which time I've created over 600 paintings and drawings, while very few of those pieces stayed behind with me. A recent studio clean has inspired me to compile only 23 original paintings and drawings along with several other unqiuties making up the Remnants Gathered Online Art Auction.

These pieces will be new to fresh eyes and some will be familiar to those who follow my work. In either case, this offering is a wonderful opportunity to acquire a new to you piece of artwork, that maybe never would have otherwise been possible.

This is a one time opportunity, that will not happen again, hopefully for another fifteen years. I am excited to see who gets the final say on this limited offering!

Happy Bidding.

Your friend,
